OF HUMAN INTEREST: STORIES OF TO-DAY

He Got the Pass.

He Got the Pass.

The following story about James J.
Hill, the railway magnate, is going the rounds in the Northwest. Mr. Hill was talking to some friends in a hotel lobby when a young man bustled up to him and said: "Mr. Hill, you claimed a year age that no one need be out of a job in this part of the country."
"I did." admitted Mr. Hill.
"Well, your statement is incorrect," declared the young man. "I have been hustling for a job for the past six months and can't get work at anything
I can do."

I can do."
That's just it," observed Hill. "What

"That's just it," observed Hill. "Whaten you da?"

"Have several years' experience as a stenographer; am an expert bookkeeper; have been a shipping clerk, and know the business; am an Al advertising man; also a first-class book agent," said the young man in one breath.

It ended with Mr. Hill giving him a letter to the Great Northern offices in 8t. Paul. He was going to try out the young man and see what was in him.

"Thank you, Mr. Hill," he ejaculated as he hurried away; but in a mement he was back again."

"Say, Mr. Hill," he asked, "do I take the brake beam to St. Paul?"

"He got a pass.

The Greek Church.

The Greek Church.

The chief procurator of Russia, in a late report to the Car on the state of Russian religion, brings out the fact that the power and wealth of the Greek Church are immense. There are 66,189 of these churches in the emplic. During the last year 833 new places of working were consecrated. In connection with these churches there are 16,558 monks and 36,146 muns. There are 2,050 head priests and 42,743 ordinary priests. These, together with 58,155 deacons and under deagons, make a grand total, along with seven other divisions, the figures of which are not given exactly, or 170, persons in official positions. A sum of nearly $30,000,000 was paid by the Russian people last year for the support of this vast organization.

Mixed Tongues.

Mixed Tongues.

In New Britain a missionary, in translating, was seeking some native idiom to convey the idea of a binding oath, when a chief suggested that the desired phrase was, "I would rather speak to my wife's mother than do such and such a thing." In British Columbia a missionary wanted his catechist to translate "A crown of glory that fadeth not away," This was done to the satisfaction of all concerned, but ultimately the missionary found to his horror that it had been rendered, "A hat that never wears out!"

A Town Without Government.

A Town Without Government.

Spokogee, a town in the western part of the Creek nation, is the only town of 1,000 population in the territory that has no town efficers. The people there say they have no need of officers and do not want any. They pay no taxes, and whenever they want any public improvement they call a meeting of citizens and raise the money. A deputy United States marshal is located there, and is all that is needed to zeep the peace. There is not, a gambler or gambling house in the town, and the people will not permit them. A school house was needed, so the people got together and built a good two-story building for that purpose.

PRICE OF ICE.

Merchants and Families Must Pay More.

Present indications are that fee will be high here this summer. The lowest price to consumers now is 40 ccnis to hundred. To those who buy in small quantities the price will be 50 cents a The fight recently. fight recently made about the price

The fight recently made about the first of ice was unsuccessful. A local merchant last night commented bitterly on the price here, as compared to other cities. "In Paterson, N. J.," he said, "the price is 40 cents to private families, and 50 cents by the week. To merchants and barmen it ranges from 20 cents to 25 cents. There is on reason why it shouldn't be as low here."

Who Are the Men?

Pictures of Two Gentlemen, One an Educator, the Other a Soldier and Statesman; and Both Prominent in Confederate Circles, Cut Up and Mixed Together. Money and Other Valuable Prizes for Those Who Solve The Puzzle.

The above "cut-up" pieces are the remaining parts of the portraits of two prominent citizens, one an educator, and the other a soldier and statesman, and both prominent in Confederate circles. The other pieces of the same two portraits were published in The Times-Dispatch yesterday and last Sunday. To-morrow and the next day The Times-Dispatch will publish among the Want Ads. a number of extra capital letters in brackets, thus: (M). These letters, when properly put together, will spell the names of the two gentlemen, pieces of whose portraits are printed in this Advertisement. Part of the pictures are here, and the other pieces were published Sunday and yesterday. The capital letters will be printed Thursday and Priday.

THE First Prize—35.00 in gold.
Second Prize—A pretty Mantle Clock.
Third Prize—Two tickets to the Academy next wee Fourth Prize—Two tickets to the Bijou next week,

All replies must be in The Times-Dispatch office by next Saturday, at noon, and the winners will be announced in The Times-Dispatch next Sunday. All correct answers will be placed in a basket and the winners drawn out by a disinterested person, blindfolded. The first answer drawn out will get the first prize, thus, in regular order until the five prizes be decided.
